

“Tom” Reeds “Bored” Walk.

“Tom Reed was very fond of crash suits in the warm weather, and he often went down Pennsylvania avenue, in Washington, on his way to the capital, arrayed in one of them, with a silk sash about his waist and a jaunty straw hat on his head, says the Boston Herald.

One day while he was speaker, when so attired, and accompanied by Congressman Hitt of Illinois, he was overtaken by Mr. Lessler, who, it will be remembered, defeated Perry Belmont for congress in his famous “washboiler” campaign.

Lessler was not very popular with the speaker, or, indeed, with any of his colleagues in the house, so when he familiarly said to Mr. Reed: “Ah, there, Mr. Speaker, just think that you are at the seashore, I presume,” referring, of course, to his costume, the speaker turned to him and said, “Yes, yes, join us and we will have a bored walk.”

Washington, D. C., holds the heat record. They are frying eggs on the street car rails, and reports of barefooted persons being severely, if not mortally, burned by stepping on the pavement are becoming common.

Hoke Smith says he has a divine call to make the race for governor of Georgia. Hoke and the Lord ought to make it warm for Clark Howell if they can keep Grover Cleveland from endorsing them.

A Virginia widow dropped dead of heart failure when she saw her pet dog in danger of being run over by a train. But her heart stood the test of her husband's death. The dog was not insured.

Billious Bill was agitated, and was much debilitated. People said he had consumption, that was everyone's presumption. When he learned what was the matter, Bill made all the doctors scatter. Now he is his own adviser. Swears by Little Earle Risers.

Some of our leading writers have abandoned the literary field, and gone to work in the cotton field for a living, having come to the conclusion that one bale of cotton beats six crates of poetry.

We think it not improbable that the reciprocity convention of a month hence at Chicago will be the signal gun for a campaign of education and influence to be carried on all over the country.

Last year, ending June 30, 38,902 natives of the Emerald Isle left their homes, the vast majority to make new homes in Canada and the United States. Since 1850 almost 4,000,000 Irish people have left their native land.

“I have heard a great deal about the ‘Subway Air,’ said the caller at the New York music store. “Are there any words that go with it?” “There are,” responded the salesman, “but they are unsuitable for publication.”

The fashion of politicians starting magazines for the exploitation of themselves and their theories is spreading. Former Governor “Bob” Taylor of Tennessee has just launched a periodical of that character.

That Japanese peace commission is certainly organized for strict business, if, as The Birmingham News states, the party “carries about eight trunks, and there are no summer resort society women in the party, either.”

So many of multi-millionaires are being asked where they got it that Richard Croker really feels that the time of his life was when he shook the dust of America from his feet and took the Tammany dust with him to Europe.

A HOPELESS FIGHT

It is as impossible to conquer the king of diseases—Contagious Blood Poison—with Mercury and Potash as it would be to conquer the king of the forest in a hand-to-hand encounter, as thousands who have had their health ruined and lives blighted through the use of these minerals will testify. They took the treatment faithfully, only to find when it was left off, the disease returned with more power, combined with the awful effects of these minerals, such as mercurial rheumatism, necrosis of the bones, salivation, inflammation of the stomach and bowels, etc. When the virus of Contagious Blood Poison enters the blood it quickly contaminates every drop of that vital fluid, and every muscle, nerve, tissue and bone becomes affected, and soon the foul symptoms of sore mouth and throat, copper-colored blotches, falling hair and eyebrows, swollen glands, sores, etc., make their appearance. Mercury and Potash can only cover up these evidences for awhile; they cannot cure the disease. S. S. S. has for many years been recognized as a specific for Contagious Blood Poison—a perfect antidote for the deadly virus that is so far-reaching in its effects on the system. S. S. S. does not hide or mask the disease, but so thoroughly and completely cures it that no signs are ever seen again.

MARLIN

For quail, partridge or trap work the new

is the ideal gun, and the lightest (6 1/2 lbs.) and smallest efficient repeater made. It is not a 16 barrel on a 12 action, but a very fast handling, finely balanced gun of great accuracy. Our cylinder bore gun for brush shooting has no equal.

The full choked barrels are bored for either smokeless or black powders, and take heavy loads. They target better than 240 pellets in a 30 inch circle at 35 yards, using one ounce 7 1/2 chilled shot. You ought to know this gun. Write for full catalogue description. 3 stamps postage.
